

NIGHT OUT FOR AUSTIN TICE

MAY 2, 2019

HELP US BRING HIM HOME

The National Press Club and its #FreeAustinTice coalition partners are teaming up with leading restaurants across the country to raise awareness about the case of Austin Tice, an American journalist who has been held captive in Syria since August 2012. Austin filed award-winning work for The Washington Post, McClatchy and CBS before his capture. He is a Houston native, an Eagle Scout, a Hoya, and a Marine - he devoted his life to the service of others, and right now he needs our help.

ON MAY 2, grab your friends and go to dinner at one of the many participating restaurants listed at NightOutForAustin.com. These restaurants have pledged to contribute a portion of their proceeds from NIGHT OUT FOR AUSTIN TICE to the reward fund established by the FBI for information leading to Austin's safe return. Now is the time to act and everyone can help - make your reservation today.

NIGHTOUTFORAUSTIN.COM